Dufus, Smith,

TRISH: (hardly compares to your artistry but still :)

Wow like what to say man (I sound like Brooke) Remember way back when we were letterchicks & we didn't even know each other? (those were the [redacted] good old days ha ha) & WOW look at us now... I hate to admit it, but... I'm so glad we're buddies (ok cut the sarcasm) We've lived through 3 years of Bonnie & her "dancing"(??) & even survived Pink Panther, an ordeal I thought I'd never come out of alive-UGH. and ski trips, & car trips to Modesto & Carmel, & drug trips ← just kidding. You are one spazzable chick & a fun friend! Our two darling M.'s of long ago don't even appeal to us anymore; we've matured so much haven't we darling? I hope everything goes the way we want & we meet gorgeous, intelligent men who think we're gorgeous & intelligent! Oh yeah, there are other things besides men. Wouldn't it be neat if we both become successful & meet in a Paris café in 15 years? (I'm rambling) Yeah we could do that... someday you're going to read this & think-this freak was my friend?? Best of luck always & much love, Kristen
We're going to dance this summer... & not put it off forever like we always have done, right?! Bye♡

Trish,

God! You are such a great dancer! I'm glad we had some classes together so we could get to know each other. Good luck in whatever & take care luv, Becky.

P.S. You are so sweet!

Trish-
It was super having you in Civics because it was the first time I really got to meet you. Needless to say I liked what I saw. You're a kind, understanding, considerate person and I only hope I've learned from you. I wish I could've had you in another class as I haven't seen you for awhile but I still feel were friends and can communicate. Good luck, you have the makings of a success not only in a carreer but also as a person.

Love,
Tom Linebaugh

Hi Trish!
Well we made it, kid. We go back a long ways, and I have lots of good memories. Good friends are something you never want to loose, so we have to keep in touch! We've got great times behind us and wild times ahead (and lord knows - if we survived 8th grade - we can survive anything). I know you'll have fun at Chico, & thanks for being a friend-

FLAKE

How's it going? you are such a sweetie. I'm glad I got to know ya alot better this year in spang. you are a very talented dancer & choreography! you should go with it! I wonder how our little baby (the broken flag) is doing. I think you will a better mother. anyway, Take care & have fun this summer and next year. Congrats on graduating. love ya, Maria

Well [redacted] Trish,

Your leaving & we hadden talked this year! Remember "Thuan little baby..." I thot that was funny! Well to keep you from this boredness I'll say good-bye. Don't miss me & may the force be w/ you,

Love, Kelly

PEN

Trish,

It was great in chemistry because you were in there. Your sense of humor and personality kept the whole class up, laughing, etc... Too bad your leaving this year but I guess your just lucky. Good Luck and have a great summer..

P.S. I'LL TRY TO GET SOME PICTURES FOR YOU

CHESTER'S LAST HOMECOMING

Homecoming is one of Awalt's oldest and best traditions. Students and faculty always put an extra effort into homecoming week especially the parade, rally, game and of course the floats. Awalt is one of the few high schools in the state that puts the time and effort into building floats. Each year at least one float makes an appearance, via photographs, in our local newspaper. This year was Awalt's last homecoming. Let us hope that this will not be the last of the floats and other traditions we have developed at Chester F. Awalt High School.

81 DOES IT AGAIN

The senior class repeated their victory of their junior year by winning the float competition. They showed their determination by rebuilding a side of their float, in one half an hour, after an accident on the way to the parade. The theme for the senior float was "Spartan Spirit" (Pepsi). The juniors' theme was "Slam it down" (Rondo). It had a movable part, something which has not been done in recent years at Awalt. The class of '83 used "Here comes the Spartans" (Budweiser) as their theme. (It was rumored that the unfinished look of the sophomore float was due to the large consumption of Budweiser.) The freshmen float, although small, was well done. Many hard working hours were put into the construction of the floats. Each class did a very good job and helped contribute to a memorable homecoming week.

AWALT'S DEPARTURE

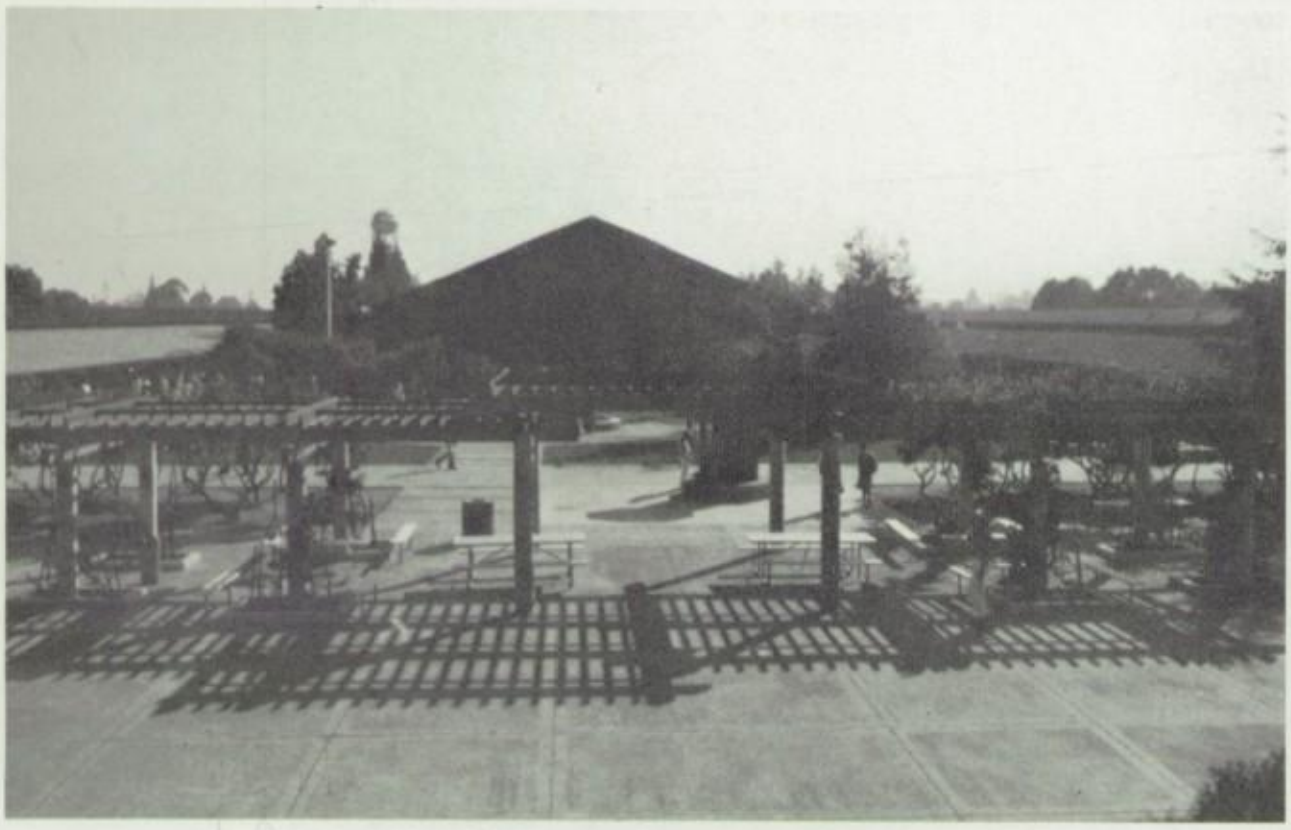
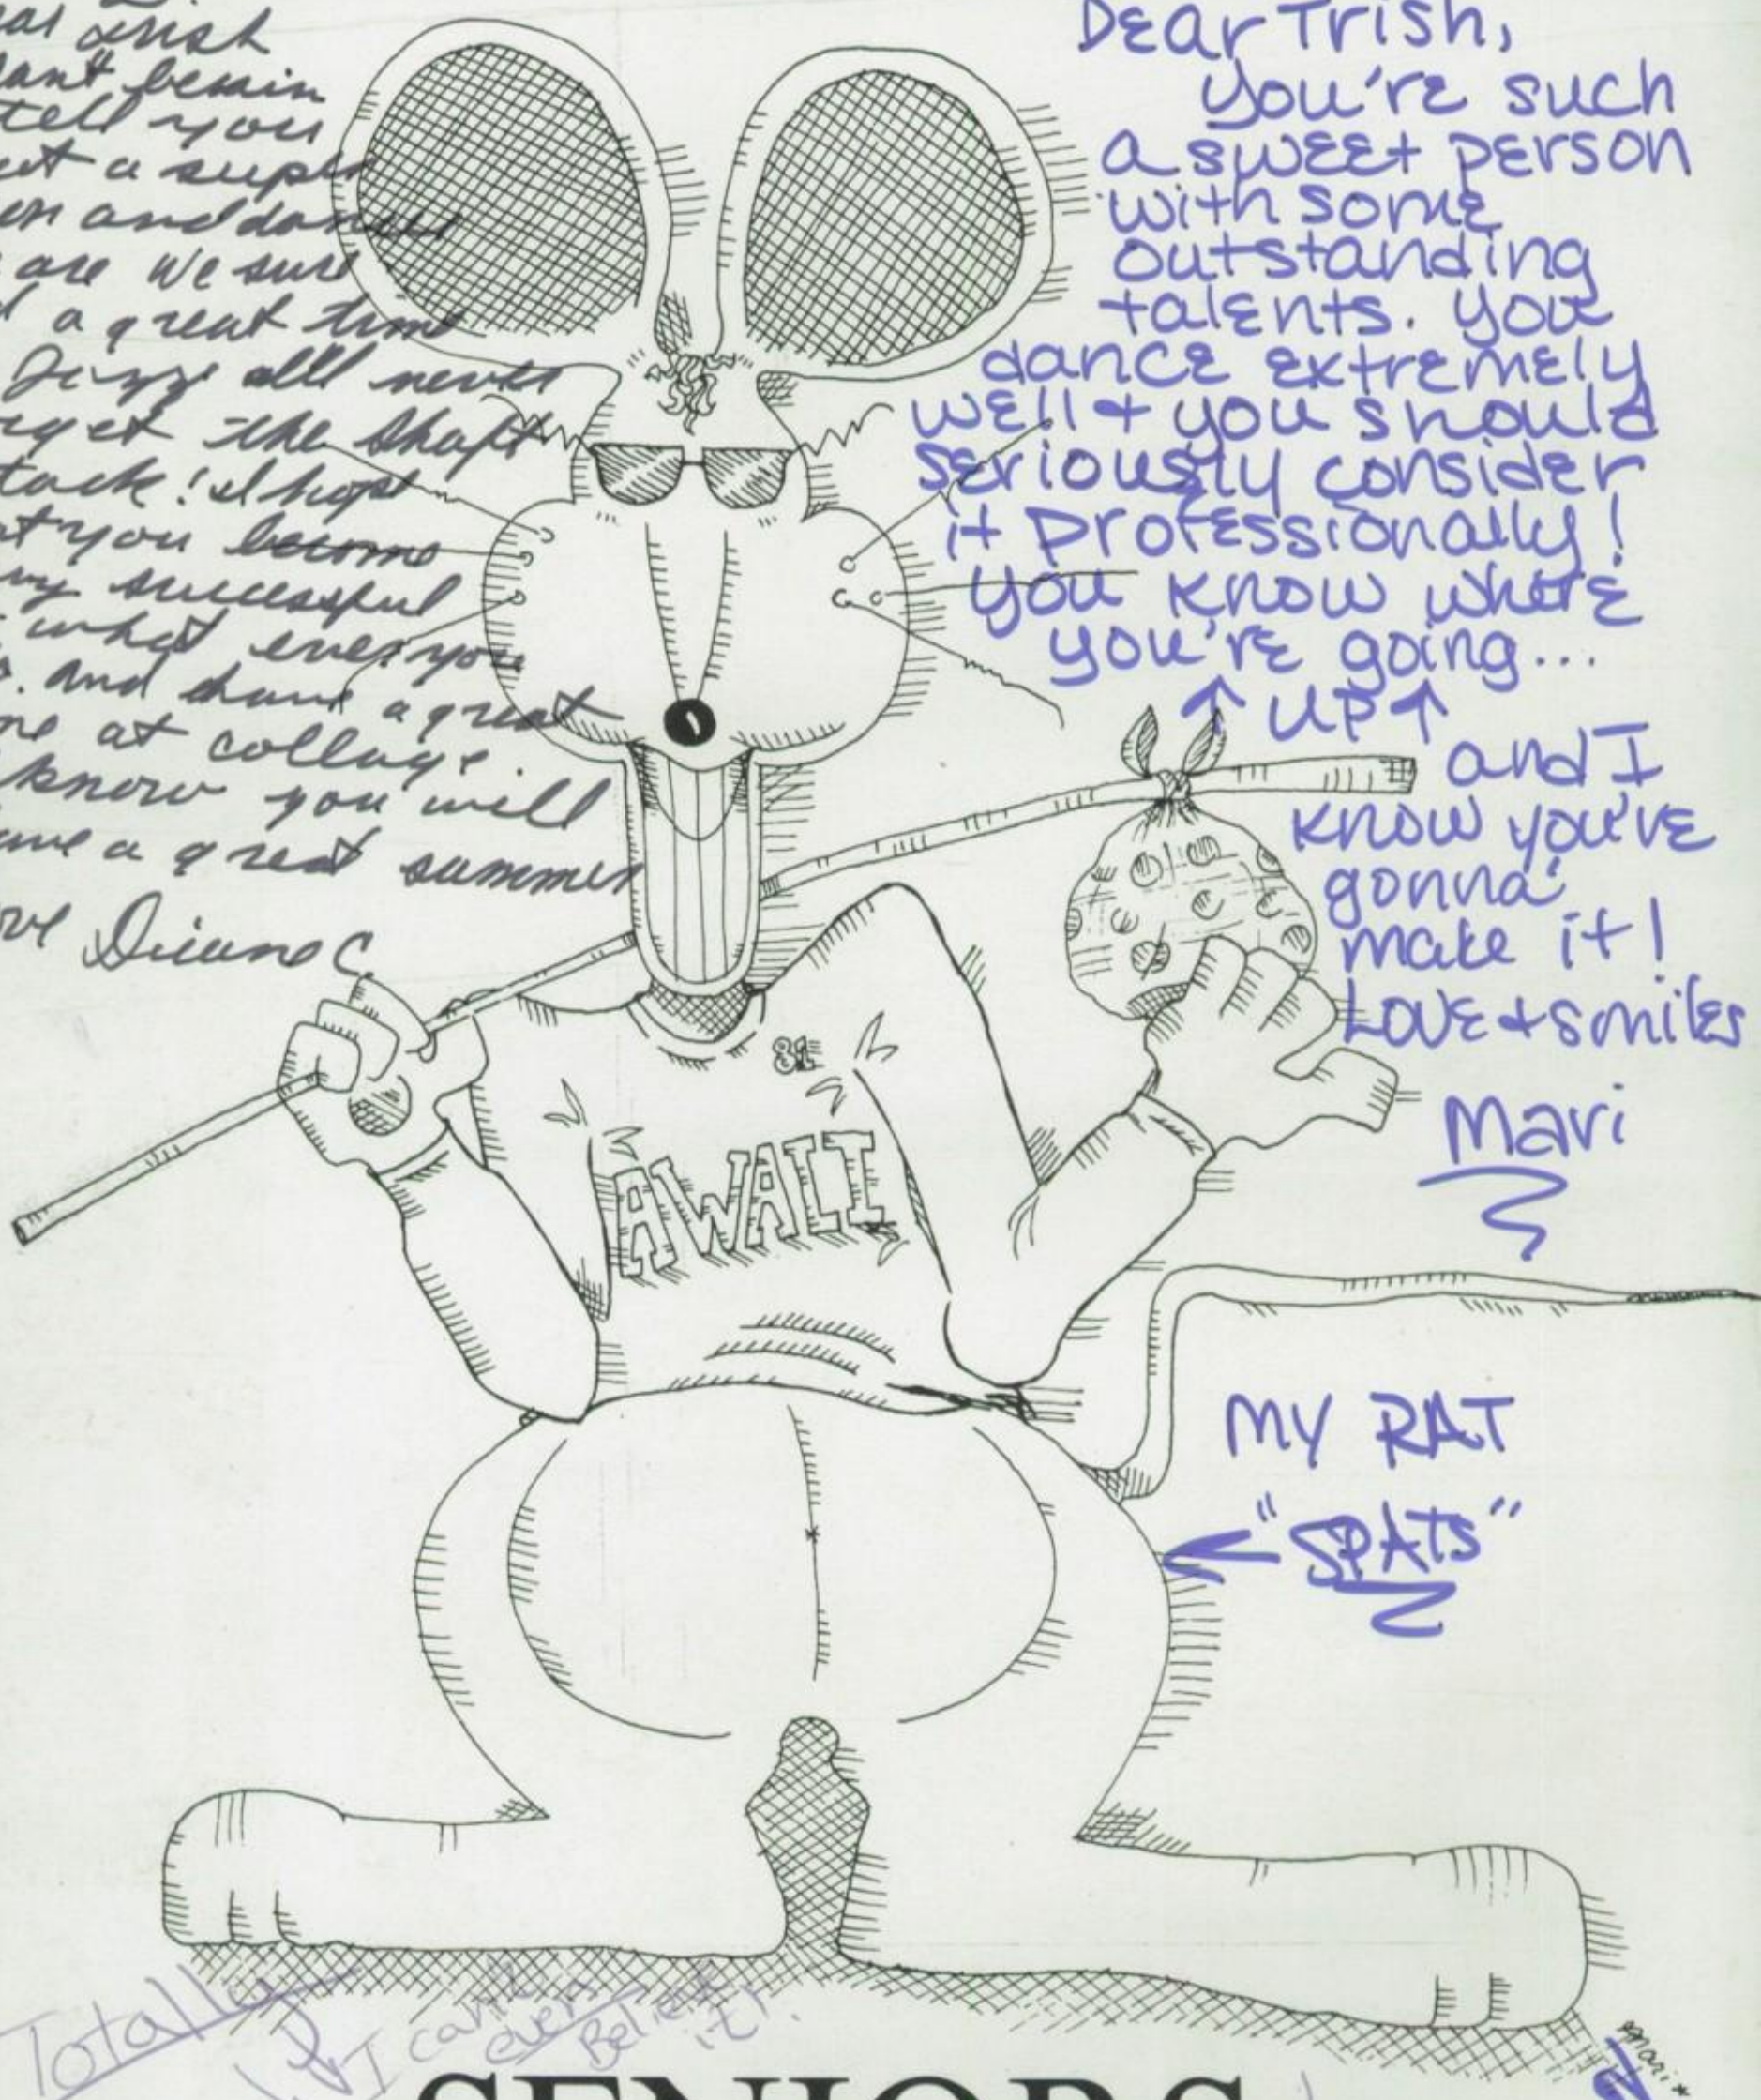
Awalt High School has always been considered to have a "casual" attitude toward scholastic achievement and an apathetic lack of spirit. However, students who have attended Awalt know this as a falsehood.

The Awalt Spartans are a spirited group, who take pride in their school, teams, and traditions. School activities are well attended, with a tremendously high energy level. We can point out our many championships in waterpolo as well as in football, soccer, track, cross country, swimming, baseball, volleyball, and fencing, to name a few. On the scholastic level, Awalt definitely provides a quality education for its students, of which 88% move on to higher learning.

The class of 1981 is the last graduating class of Awalt. The spirit of the school that once was will live on through the classes of '82, '83, and '84, but after that Awalt will only be a memory. The 1981 Olympiad presents "The Amazing Journey", a trip through the past of our school, and dedicates this book to the place which is very much a part of our lives: Chester F. Awalt High School.





Dear Trish
I can't seem to tell you what a super person and dancer you are We sure had a great time in Jazz all never forget the shark attack! I hope that you become very successful at what ever you do. and have a great time at college. I know you will Have a great summer
Love Diane C.

Dear Trish,
You're such a sweet person with some outstanding talents. You dance extremely well + you should seriously consider it professionally! You know where you're going...

Gotcha!

We the seniors, the class of '81, wear the distinction of being the last graduating class of Awalt. As we look back with a bit of pain, and a lot of amusement-rejoicing that it's over, yet not believing it went by so fast, these things come to mind:

The Varsity Water Polo team had another excellent season. The regular season ended with a three way tie for first place in the SCVAL between Awalt, Buscher and Gunn. Awalt beat Gunn in the tie-breaker and became league co-champs with Buscher.

In the CCS tournament, the Spartans beat their first opponent 11-5 and went on to play second-seeded Monta Vista. Unfortunately, they lost 10-11 in a heartbreaking, double overtime game. "It was the toughest game any of us have ever played or will want to play. It lasted almost two hours." stated senior Mark Walkup. Monta Vista eventually won the CCS championship.

The Spartans didn't do as well as they had hoped but they finished in a respectable sixth place. Mark Walkup and Dave Blockhus were selected to the all-CCS second team and Mark was chosen the MVP of the SCVAL. Three team members were chosen for the SCVAL all-league team: Dave Blockhus, Tom LaTourette and Peter Schoen. Sophomore, Robby Roberts made the all-league honorable mention team.

This year's Frosh/Soph Water Polo team didn't play as a team during league. But they did compete in the Monta Vista and Cupertino tournaments. In the Cupertino tourney, they placed second behind a powerful Live Oak team. A key player in this tourney was Robby Roberts who scored a majority of the goals. The Spartans also placed second in the Monta Vista tourney behind the home team. A large part of their success in this tourney goes to Ben Murray and Brad Beedle who were selected to the all-league team. Rob Thompson was selected as all-league honorable mention.

The Varsity Football team had a disappointing season. They won their first two league games but couldn't make the right connections after that. Awalt fans stood by the team, cheering them on throughout the season.

The team played their best game of the season against Mtn. View, nearly beating the undefeated league leaders. Awalt was winning going into the fourth quarter but the final score was Mtn. View 29, Awalt 22.

Despite the league record, Awalt produced several outstanding individuals. Fullback, Sean Kirkpatrick was named to the all-league team and Mitch Fehr was named to the all-CCS team, in addition to being the SCVAL's offensive MVP. Mitch finished the season with 60 receptions (a Peninsula and CCS record) for a total of 897 yards. He also set the CCS record for most receptions in a single game when he caught 17 passes in the game against Paly. QB, Don Nusbaum and defensive tackle, Rodney Robinson, were named to the second team all-league.

The Frosh/Soph football team had a good season. They came up with 3rd place in the league, losing only to Mtn. View and Paly.

The defense played very well together and allowed only about 10 points per game. Middle linebacker, Dave Knox, was selected to the all-league team for his outstanding defensive play.

The offense wasn't as consistent as it could have been, but led by QB, Mike Dougherty and all league selection, Joe Schmidt, they came out winners 6 out of 8 games.

Many strong players should be moving up to help out the varsity next year.

The 1980 Varsity Volleyball team was the first to reach CCS in Awalt's his! tory. They ended their regular league season in third place with a record of 5-3, but were awarded an 'at large' berth to Regionals. Victories over South San Francisco and Mitty gave them the Region I title. Then it was on the CCS! Unfortunately they encountered Fremont, the eventual CCS and State Champs in the first round. The season came to a close with a thrilling three game match against Gunn, lost by only four points. The coach, Max Kernegahn, was pleased with the performance and dedication of the seniors and especially with the team play at Regionals.

All league honors were awarded to Bonnie Braymen (also MVP), Martina Bormann and Rebecca Smith.

They were also named to the all-league team along with J.V. returnie, Laurie Robinson and junior Pam Williams, who had an excellent season.

The team was very young, made up of six freshmen including: G. Haley (6), A. Segar (4), L. Yuen (10), J. Braymen ( 24), M. Smith (15), and K. Gaudie (7). Sophomore, R. Mizobe (11), and junior, L. Johnson (8), showed fine skill and contributed greatly to the team's success.

Awalt's Varsity Tennis team opened their season with hopes for a spot in the SCVAL play-offs. The season began well, with shutout victories (7-0) over Mtn. View, Wilcox, Santa Clara, and Buscher. However, the team couldn't hold out against strong Gunn and Paly teams. Disappointing losses to Los Altos and Perterson dashed all hopes of a play-off spot. Coach Byer was pleased with the individual improvement and is looking forward to prospective next talent next year.

CROSS COUNTRY

Awalt's 1980/81 Varsity Cross Country team placed third in the SCVAL behind Paly and Gunn. Awalt runners making it to the regionals were Gyorgi Sapojnikoff, Ed Snyder and Brian Wilde. Carolyn Lerch, the girls' team's brillant runner, finished twelth in the league. In Frosh/Soph the best runners include Jon Crick and Rich Clark. Coach Reisdorf felt that Freshman Rich Clark was Awalt's most outstanding runner, for placing first at Los Altos, Foothill and Crystal Springs meets as well as placing second in the league finals.

The 80/81 Varsity Basketball team combined teamwork and skill to complete a winning season of 11-10. They finished league play with a 6-2 record which tied them with Palo Alto for second place. The captain, senior Kris Anderson, with the best freethrow percentage (64%) directed the team. Co-captain, junior Lolly Wonnacott led the team in scoring (12.5 average), blocked shots (26) and rebounds (184). Seniors Rebecca Smith, Wendy Corsiglia both played two years on the varsity and used their talents and enthusiasm to encourage the younger players. Sophomore guard Letty Garcia led the team in steals with 37 for the season. Freshman "flash" Karal Yohanan, the quickest member on the team, improved tremendously and is expected to dazzle the crowds in the next three years. There will be eight members from this years team returning so next season looks even brighter. Opponents Beware!

This year J.V. team was coached by '79 Awalt alumni Janet Harman, who said that "It was a great group of girls to work with for my first year coaching." The team turned in a good season with a league record of 5-3 and second place in the SCVAL. It was a group effort with all the girls easily motivated and ethusiastic.

Outstanding leadership came from sophomore Laura Robinson, junior Staci Duncan and freshman Shelley Halvorson. Six foot, one inch freshman Angela Segar led in scoring and rebounding. Every girl played hard and improved greatly during the season. All in all it was a good year and many of the girls will have a good shot at the varsity next year.

A break in the action

Under first year coach Dave Blasquez, the Spartans basketball team completed an exciting campaign, finishing 5-7 in league play (9-13 overall). Despite losing their first five league games, the Spartans made a run at the playoffs by putting together a five game winning streak, which was culminated with a convincing 60-45 triumph over Santa Clara in Awalt's last ever home game.

The Spartans were led by seniors John Brew, Mitch Fehr, Dave Forsman, Jim Kilpatrick and team M.V.P. Tom Linebarger. Providing strong bench support were Eric Martin, Blake Lambourne, Eric Speirs and Adrian Golde. Jeff Sidebottom, Jack Pai and Steve Forester also contributed to the success of the team.

Awalt's Frosh/Soph team, under the coaching of Frank Niebaum, completed the season with a 6-6 record. The Spartan's leading scorer this year was sophomore standout Mike Dougherty, who along with Pat McNeil, helped guide the inexperienced club. Todd Winslow, Dean LaTourrette, Eric Schill and Brian Leegwater, all freshmen, were regular starters who contributed to the team's success.

Despite having 10 freshmen on his squad, Coach Niebaum had a very well disciplined and exciting team.

VARSITY SOCCER

Once again the Varsity Soccer team made it to play-offs but this time it was in third place behind Gunn and Paly. After losing most of last year's starters, the team lacked the depth to defend the SCVAL crown, but came back from a rocky preseason to a 6-2 league record.

Gene del Pilar, who was chosen MVP of the league for his excellent defensive play said, "We never would have gotten this far without coach Sampson." One superb shot and a miscue dashed Awalt's hopes of going to CCS when they lost to Paly 2-1 in the play-offs. But since they are losing only four starters, the Spartans should come back very strong next year.

Barry Thompson was selected to the all-league team and Jim McGuirk, Nate Nielsen and Stacey Holm were given honorable mention.

SPARTANS ON THE ATTACK

The Varsity Soccer team was frustrated by tough league competition and player injuries. Although there was a lot of individual talent, the team had trouble getting it all together and came up with a 2-5 league record.

The Spartans played their best game against Palo Alto, the defending CCS champs. Awalt lost 2-1 but the score does not reflect the superb effort put out by the girls. Goalie, Kelly Dunn stopped 44 out of 46 shots on goal and Lisa Best scored the lone goal that put Awalt within reach of a major upset.

With so many new team members (including four freshman) this was a rebuilding year. The Spartans should come back strong next year.

The J.V. team tied for second in the league with a record of 1-1-3. Sophomore, Suzi Bento and freshman Lissa Carey both gave outstanding performances on the forward line.

Marcella Macartney did an excellent job of coaching and should be commended for braving the soccer field in her ninth month of pregnancy. The season ended on a fine note with the long awaited birth of a healthy baby boy.

When asked about the season, Jill Hanneman replied: "We played well together as a team and were always enthusiastic about the games—we had a lot of spirit."

In 1980, Scott Balcon was first team all-league. In '81 the Spartans will be counting on good defense and pitching. There are not many people on the team so everybody should see plenty of action.

ADVANCED JAZZ DANCE

This year fifty girls auditioned for the Awalt Advanced Jazz Dance Company. Twenty three were selected to produce a jazz dance concert on May 14 and 15 (in conjunction with Awalt's world famous Jazz Ensemble). The show was comprised of eleven dances one of which was choreographed by ten of the top dancers. The girls worked for three months, approximately two and a half hours a day, to bring to Awalt a Jazz Dance Performance many claim to be of professional quality. Kristen Underwood was the student director and Bonnie Byhre was the master mind faculty advisor of this reknowned group.

GIRLS TRACK

This year's girls track team is looking forward to a promising season. Some of their toughest competition will come from Paly, Gunn and Los Altos. The team has a lot of potential and determination.

Some of the more promising runners include Carolyn Lerch, Marybeth Henke, Wendy Corsiglia and Kristi Spangler. Several new runners have come out adding greater variety to the team. Coach Pete Zagar has high hopes that the girls will make it to the regionals.

Awalt's last track team is expected to be a powerhouse in the SCVAL. Led by fearless Coach LeeRoy "There's a lot of oxygen in this air" Gutierrez, these herioc individuals have set their goals and plan to demolish Los Altos. Supported by assistant coaches, Mike Sesich, Pete Zagar and Wendy Fleming, Mr. Gutierrez stated confidently, "1981 should be an exciting year for the Spartans and the prospect for finishing high in the division standings are extremely good." Outstanding team members include: Rodney Robinson, Nick Granoski, freshman Rich Clark, Ed Snyder, Pat Casey, Bob Carey, Gyorgi Sapojnikoff, Jim Kilpatrick and Dave Cox.

The Music Council was formed three years ago as a means to give the music students a chance to participate in decision making concerning all aspects of the Music Department. The council, consisting of choral and band representatives from each performing groups, meets together once a month. Here they discuss such things as concets, parties, morale and fund-raising. The members of the Music Council are: standing, W. Akins, B. Wachsmuth, M. Dumitru, C. Wong, J. Metz, E. Belen, F. Bate, L. Hager, Sitting, G. Collins, M. Walsh, D. Slifer, D. Kerns, R. Kramer, K. # REFLECTIONS

This years group is much smaller than last years. Denise Doering, the director, felt the need for this in order for the group to get a feeling of clarity and dedication. The group consists of thirteen vocalists and a full time accompianist. Pictured from left to right are: D. Slifer, K. Loustau, M. Boothby, D. Doering, M. Aubert, L. Lukas, L. Hager, M. Dumitru, A. Takatsuka, G. Delaossa, B. Wachsmuth and D. Mucha. Not Pictured are: W. Akin, D. Tyler and C. Wong. The Reflections repetoire consists of a variety of jazz selections and ballads. They perform at many different community and school functions and participate at many jazz festivals around California.

Reflections is anticipating the arrival of the Mtn. View students in hopes that the new talent will make the group better than it's ever been before.

MEMORIAL CONCERT

In memory of Scott Rush, the ASB Cabinet sponsored a concert in order to raise money for a par course. The concert was a success featuring the Greg Kihn Band and the Rubinoos. Many Greg Kihn fans from the Bay Area came to watch the show, and to pay tribute to Scott Rush. Some of Greg Kihn's hits included "Secret Meetings", "For You", and "Madison Avenue".

GIRLS' AND BOYS' STATE

Janice Jagelski and Alen Takatsuka

When I was given the opportunity to go to Girls' State, I didn't know what to expect. The only thing I knew was that I would play government in Sacramento for a week. I wasn't too excited at the beginning, but upon my arrival, I was quickly caught up in the action and began having fun.

During the mock elections for local, county and state offices I was elected as a county supervisor. I met some of the most outgoing, honest and fun-loving girls that I have ever known. After long days of debates, trials, listening to guest speakers (Governor Brown was one of them), and forming party platforms, we always managed to organize massive frisbee games or raids on other dorms.

At Girls' State, I learned all about holding positions in all levels of government and the experience made me aware of my civil rights and duties, the most important being my right to vote for my leaders and laws. I am very grateful for being given the chance to participate in this program and I feel I am a better citizen for having done so.

Janice Jagelski

Last summer I participated in the 43rd annual California Boys' State program at Sacramento State University, along with 900 other guys.

I learned about American government and citizenship by being part of a mock government run by the Boys' Staters. When not busy campaigning or attending political assemblies, I was either catching some Sacramento sun or making music with other Boys' State musicians. A visit to the state capital and a memorable talent show highlighted the Boys' State program as the week long session came to an end.

I would like to thank the Awalt faculty and staff and the Mtn. View American Legion Post for having given me the honor to represent Awalt High School in the 1980 California Boys' State Session.

DANCE COMMITTEE

he Dance Committee is made up of a group of udents who organize and put on dances. Some f the dances this year included: The Homeoming Dance, The Christmas Social, and The t. Patricks Day Dance. This year, because of the ck of funds and student interest, the Dance ommittee could not put on as many dances as ey would have liked. The Dance Committee is eaded by Liz Ferranti.

The Homecoming Committee turned out to be very successful this year. With the help of many interested students, and committee head Rebecca Smith, they were able to put on many activities. Some of them included: organizing the parade, getting a parade permit, finding and decorating the cars, designing all decorations, and organizing all of Spirit Week.

A Cabinet Thanks

Awalt Student Government has always been known for its excellent communication workshop, put on for everyone from the music department through the football team. But this year the members of the ASB Cabinet have taken quite a different approach. This was to put the emphasis on activities. As a result of this, Awalt Student Government has organized and planned movies, bands at lunch, frosh orientation, Homecoming 1980-81, the Scott Rush Memorial Concert, a Christmas party, and a welcome dance. The list goes on. Although none of this could have been possible without the hard work of a lot of dedicated students, the 1980-81 ASB cabinet would also like to thank all the people who helped make Awalt Student Government a success, and those people who took the time to participate and become involved.

DRAMA CLUB

This year the District had only one Drama instructor, Jim Vaughn. Because of this and the fact that Mtn. View will be closing next year, the tri school plays, "You Can't Take It With You" and "Tartuffe" were District affairs. This was done in an effort to help us ease into next years closure. Awalt's Drama club played a big part in the success of the tri school plays.

BICYCLE CLUB

The Bike club consists of students who plan their own overnight and day bicycle trips (of mostly more than 20 mile rides). Some of the rides already taken were to Halfmoon Bay, Saratoga Gap, Big Basin, Portola and many other state parks in the area. The club officers were, Bruce Lee the first semester President and Bob Shrader the second semester President with Doug Balley as the club advisor.

Nori Wood, President

The Junior Statesman of America, founded over 40 years ago, contains more than 2,000 members in California. The club's main purpose is to orient and interest high school students in state and national government. Students meet together at various conventions during the year to discuss current topics, debate on controversal issues, and talk with major political figures such as Governor Brown, Pete McCloskey, and John Anderson. As 80-81 chapter President, Nori Wood is responsible for the 30-member chapter and planning group events. Frank Navarro is the advisor.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The class of 1981 is very special to me. Four years ago you came to Awalt. So did I.
Four years ago we came to a fine school. Yet in special ways we have made Awalt our own. We've had a largely new administration and counseling staff. We've been able to add twelve terrific young teachers. We've said goodbye to many wonderful people that we miss. Yet, our whole staff has gotten better every year.
For our four years we've had the student center, the new offices- and the trellis. We survived 5 minute passing time for a year, and went back to 10. We proposed the infamous attendance machine, listened to the students complain, and didn't do it. We've had the ups and downs of four spirited spirit weeks. Soccer and jazz dance have blossomed. Our music groups, water polo, volleyball, and student governments have continued to be outstanding. We won school improvement grants. We added advanced placement courses. We've had truly great , scholars, leaders, athletes, musicians, and artists. I believe Awalt students are the best in the world.
I'm proud of what we have accomplished together at Awalt.
And now, this is also the last year of Awalt High School as it has been. As I write this, I do not know which school will close. But next year there will be a completely different teaching staff and administration, and a very different student body.
Endings are almost always beginnings. The future is exciting, whether we are graduating or going on to the "new" school. Yet there is also sadness and loss. Let us celebrate Awalt High School, and take joy in our years here. It has been a privilege to be your principal, and to share these years and this school with you.

FACULTY PLAY

But I don't want to go!!

THE Awalt faculty, in cooperation with a skilled production staff of students, in their yearly attempt to bring culture to the lives of the Awalt student body, brought to life Woody Allen's thrill comedy DON'T DRINK THE WATER. Gordon Janowsky starred as the eccentric Mr. Hollander with Mary Grant as his wife and Marilyn Baldauf as his daughter. The Hollanders are caught in a U.S embassy run by a love sick idiot named Axel Magee Mike Sesich. The play goes on to show their comic attempts at escape with the help of a priest (Jim Dunaway) who has been living in the attic for six years. Hindering their efforts is the infamous Krojack *(Becky Lorenzet)*Chief of the local K.G.B. The play was a great success, rendering the Aaudience hysterical laughter, and we all hope for a return next year of a new and better production by our beloved faculty.

HIDE!!

Well I never!

Soups on.

Give me a model!

Let us pray

CALIFORNIA SCHOLASTIC FEDERATION

The California Scholastic Federation was organized for the students dedicated to Scholastic achievement. The C.S.F. is an exclusive club for sophomores, juniors, and seniors, who have at least a "B" average. The C.S.F. club has lots of side benefits. For example, you get special consideration on your diploma and an opportunity for a C.S.F. Scholarship. C.S.F. is not solely a Scholastic club, but also an activities club. They have fund raisers and field trips ranging from pancake breakfasts to plays in San Francisco. The Olympiad would like to congratulate all members of C.S.F.

SCOTT RUSH

This is dedicated to the memory of SCOTT RUSH, who shall never be forgotten in the minds and hearts of his family and friends.

I love the thought of us being together
Even when it seems as long ago as forever

In the times when I feel a stroke of sadness attack
I pull out your very special memory, and time turns back

Time only turns back for a moment or two
But I need those moments back again with you

They make me realize that memories and life are to share
Because without them everything would be meaningless and unfair

Wendy Corsiglia

The Appeals Board is a group of people consisting of three teachers and four students. If any student has a disagreement about a grade or a problem with a teacher, after having already talked to your counselor about the situation, they may then go to the Appeals Board. If the Board agrees with your side of the story, then the teacher may reconsider your grade. However, the teacher's decision can overrule the Board's decision.

The Appeals Board, under the Public Relations division, is headed by Wendy Corsiglia and teacher Abner Greene.

PROM COMMITTEE

Kathy Campbell, Glen Crawford, Lisa Hoppe, Barb Shrader, Andre Luthard, Donna Chun, Lynn Kopf, Jan Jagelski, Adrienne Whitten, Rebecca Smith, Jen Brazil, Sandy Campbell, Liz Ferranti. Not pictured, Hope Chalmers.

In the twilight of 1980 the infamous Prom Committee was created. These chosen few brought with them dedication, imagination and determination. In their quest for a location for the Prom, they struggled to get off Market Street, located their destinations with precision directions, and laid out the bucks for gas and parking in the Big City.

The experiences of the Prom Comm can be labled as the largest disaster since Hiroshima, but that never damped their spirits. They lived and breathed for rejection.

The Prom Comm knew the job was a nasty one when it accepted, but aggravation had hit a new high. In the beginning they had hopes for a cruise ship. But when the ship came in it sank. They were up against first degree premeditated conventions, unwanted dinner dances, tacky community halls across the street from some swanky Retirement Inn, and unsavory P.R. people.

The prerequisite for this line of work required the ability to have patience, being put on hold again and again and again . . ., and a understanding mother who is willing to shovel out brownies and the family car.

As of this writing the location, cost, publicity, band and anything else having to do with the Prom had not been set. The committee recommends to next years committee to start planning as soon as possible—i.e. now. Good luck, good ridance and thank you Steve Hope and Dr. Lorch for your time, help and patience.

The Awalt Art Department has always changed with the times. Whether the needs were for crafts, graphic design, photography, painting, or drawing, we've tried to always meet student needs. Many exceptionally creative students have graduated from Awalt and become successful designers, art directors, and artists. Here are just a few of this years art projects.

Awalt students do many things in their daily life. A typical Awalt students' life centers around the school and home. Their primary concerns are to get to class, do their homework, and to get home to do chores. Other activities might include sports, jobs, dances, movies, the beach, concerts, girls, guys, parties or just getting wasted. Everyone knows that a true Awalt student would never let any of these activiites, get in the way of their homework and chores. RIGHT???

STUDENT LIFE '80- '81

When one looks at most Awalt students it is easy to see that at almost all times their faces are filled with friendly smiles. Although everyone's lives may not be perfect, the main impression that we give is one of contentment. It's obvious that Awalt students enjoy life to the fullest.

A student's weekend is usually made up of two things: parties and personal interests. Awalt parties are getting stranger and stranger. There have been reports of some Awalt girls appearing at parties dressed as Playboy bunnies. Others have seen Rob Schwartz and Rodney Schmidt dressed in bizzare costumes. There are more examples that we just can't print. Some people spend their time in slightly more constructive ways, like Greg Jorgensen and his rocks or Helen Bruno and company gliding across the ground on their skis. We're sure all Awalt students have the natural ability to have a good time.

Truth?

King of the Jockites

Counselor Sesich

On Truth by Glen Crawford

It took me awhile to write the following piece. The yearbook people were apparently desperate enough for a filler to ask me to write something. Realizing that my contribution would be something people would look back on years from now, I knew I had to be original, creative, and avoid the usual B.S. It took quite awhile.

And then—I had a flash of inspiration.

I came home one day to find my house ransacked, my cat on fire, and the words "Yearbook was here" scrawled in blood across my lawn. This moved me to write.

It was, in fact, a rather religious experience. And so I have written, as a farewell, a religious fable—a warped tale of Truth, Life, and Awalt, and why the three don't mix.

And if you're looking back on this story sometime in the future and you don't understand it, don't worry, I never did.

There are some things, they say, that man was never meant to know.

In the beginning, all was Darkness and Chaos, which was perfectly fine. But noooooo . . . then there came planets and animals and mountains and blueberry muffins and electric coffee makers and 3-flavored dog biscuits and steel-belted radials and septic tanks and women and edible underwear and Frenchmen and all sorts of other things that really screwed up the whole situation.

And so it was into this really messed up situation that I was born. Seventeen years later, I was walking through the Quad, minding my own business, when the Lord Yearbook spoke unto me.

"Hey, you! You are called unto a holy quest."

"Sorry, I'm busy. Physics homework. How about next week?"

"Look Wiseguy," came the booming reply, "don't mess with Us. Do Our bidding, or else!"

"Or else what?" I replied

"Or else sacrifice your first born son unto Us!"

"Sounds fair."

"Give Us a break, huh? We can always find someone else who wants his name in the yearbook . . ."

"Okay, okay, what do you want done?"

"Seek the Truth. And write about it. We're desperate for a filler."

And so it came to pass that I went to seek the Truth and write about it.

First I sought out the wise King Oppezzo of the Jockites (a lost Isreali tribe not to be confused with the Jockitch). I said unto him, "Oh great Oppezzo, what is the Truth? What is the Wisdom of the Ages?

"There is only one great Truth," he answered "only one piece of wisdom in the world. It is that one truth upon which I have built my kingdom."

"What is it O King?"

"Throw the ball to Mitch."

Soon afterward, I sought out a man known only as Counselor Sesich, for I had heard he had lived fully and well, and was a "man of the world." Further, his selection of ties marked him as a man of wisdom.

"What is the Truth?" I implored him.

He pondered and replied thoughtfully, "Sex isn't everything."

"It isn't?" I exclaimethed. "Tom Linebarger told me it was. And if you can't trust your Physics lab partner, who can you trust?"

"Sex isn't everything," he repeated emphatically, "but it sure doesn't hurt."

This knowledge did not help me at the time, but I made a note to get experimental evidence later.

Truth?

King Vilaubus

Truth?

High Priestess

Mighty J.W.

Then I heard of a hermit, a mysterious little man known only as "J.W.", who lived far away from all others, and who worshipped a God known as the Golden Data. But it was said that he knew the Truth.

"O mighty J.W.," I pleaded, "what is the one constant truth of the cosmos?"
"F = ma," he said.

"What?"

"Or m = F/a, or you could say m/F = 1/a, or F/ma = 1, or F sub. c equals m times a sub c or . . . . .

The Truth was getting too complex for me. I could not find it anywhere. Truth was not in the Quad, it was not in the kiosk nor the Student Body Office nor the Career Center. I asked the High Priestess of the Library where to find Truth, and she told me to look between Trout and Tuba.

Desperate for an answer, I finally went to the philosopher—King Vilabus, who was thought of as wise because he had so much hair on his face.

"O Vilaubus," I begged, "what is Truth?"

"I don't know," he replied, "but I can give you a hint."

"What? What?"

"It's not Sumerian."

That did it. I went to the desert to look for Truth. I found lots of sand, but no Truth. Lots and lots of sand-sand as far as the eye could see. Nothing but sand. No Radio Shacks. Not even a McDonald's.

I soon realized I was lost in the desert. Or on Interstate 5. I began to look for a sign. I looked for a sign from above and found none. No road signs, no speed limit signs, nothing.

There I was, lost in the desert, without food, water or my American Express Traveler's Checks. I was getting desperate.

It was then that I had a vision.

She was about 5'7", blonde and beautiful, wearing a pair of jeans she must have been poured into, luxuriating by a warm fire with a bottle of Cabernet . . .

I awoke from my vision realizing that I was really in the desert. "=", I said.

And so it came to pass that I came to pass a pass in the mountains.

I had nearly passed the pass when I saw that past the pass there was a path. I passed through the pass and into the Promised Land.

There it was—the land where the sand meets the sea, the home of the mythical Awaltians. The Beach.

I looked around me to make sure I was in the land of Awalt. I saw barbecues, beach parties, frisbee football, surfboards, parties, drugs, parties, tanners, and parties. Yep, this was it. The fairy-tale land of Awalt.

Naturally, when I asked any of the natives about Truth, they had never heard of it before. One tried to tell me that "the words of Truth are written on the Sacred Watertower."

"What?" I asked. "You mean '81 Rules?' That's common knowledge, not Truth."

I stayed in this magic land, hoping to teach these people what little I knew about Truth, and hoping they could teach me as well. But every time I tried to talk to them of Truth, the response was the same: "Come on, man, mellow out. Here, have a Coors. Don't worry about Truth."

I tried to communicate, really I did. I even tried performing miracles. I parted red hair. I got water from a drinking fountain.

I cured a man who had eaten in the cafeteria. Nothing worked.

Then, after four years of hard effort, they kicked me out with only a slip of paper in my hand, leaving me alone to face the real world. I had been battered, beaten, ignored, chained and abused.

After all I had done for them, this is what they gave me. Ingrates!

But in the process of my suffering, I had found the wisdom I had long sought. I carried it with me through the rest of my life, and I give it to you so that your road may be easier:

Seek not the Truth, for the truth shall rape you over.

DEPARTURE

The end of this year marks a unique event in the history of our school. With the closing of Mountain View due to declining enrollment, the entire personality of Awalt will be changed in the coming fall. This is the time to be optomistic, to realize that new schools are being created and that the choice is ours to make them what we want.

It is a fact, however, that Awalt as we know and have known it will never be the same. New students will arrive and new friends will be made. Teachers will be reassigned and different classes will be taught. With this in mind, the 1981 Olympiad is concentrating on the Awalt that has been ours. The twenty years that Awalt has been open are rich in history. That history may fade from memory but will hopefully never be lost.

Varsity Cheerleaders 1962

Chemistry Club 1964

The class of 1964 is responsilbe for a large amount of any traditions that still remain today. Relocated from Mtn. View, these students decided that our proud school colors would be black and gold, and that our mascot would be the mighty Spartan. Then there were the lesser known activities. Even though the doors of Awalt were first opened in '61, it took the enthusiam of the class of '64 to form the Latin Club, the German Club, the French Club, the Industrial Arts Club, the Home Economics Club, and the Chemisty Club, and the Medical Club, the Camera Club, considereed a little bizzare by today's standards. They had interests.

In sports, it's a commonly known fact that the Awalt water polo squad has always been serious contenders. This particular tradition reaches back to 1962 when we won our first league crown. All sports were not as successful, however. Varsity football was embarrassed with its worst year, finishing 0-9. Perhaps as a result of numerous injuries, that year saw the formation of the Paramedic Club, lead by Johnny Gauge and Roy DeSoto.

Once a year, a ritual occurs at most all high schools across the nation, Awalt being no exception. Student Body officer elections are held, and in the process posters are hung, speeches are made, and ballots are cast. In 1967 things got a little more ambitious: for one day the gym became a mini-convention center just like the ones that are seen every four years when the Republicans and Democrats go at it. The convention lasted 5½ hours while students did whatever is done at conventions, waving signs, blowing horns, and threatening people to vote for their candidate. Again, there was a certain interest factor that just wouldn't make it today. In addition to having a successful convention, 1967 was the year of our hottest fencing team, being lead by Coach Colonel Charles E. Capito.

Discus Power!

The Olympics rolled around in 1968 and former Awalt students Barry Weitzenberg and Gary Sheerer participated as the world watched. The head coach was Awalt's Art Lambert, and one of the officals was Mr. Bob Lee. The sport, naturally was Water Polo.
In the last year of the decade, 1969, Awalt welcomed the Grateful Dead, who played in the gym and undoubtedly converted a number of students into becoming Dead Heads. The girls had their first powder puff football game that year, and October witnessed Awalt's first traditional Oktoberfest. It is not known how traditional the students were allowed to get.
Not for lack of anything else to do, but because the stars are out there, 1970 saw the formation of the Astronomy club. In addition to that, a group of hyperactive kids became responsible for forming the Soccer club. The Soccer club was meant to meet the demands of those interested in the sport, as Awalt had no soccer team. Maybe it was better not to have a soccer team. In 1971 the team became offical, but not without its price: before the end of the season, both the center forward and starting goalie suffered broken legs, and it was no surprise that the Spartans lost every game. Seventy-one also marked the beginning of a strange phenomenon: the J.V. football team became successful. From 1971 through 1977, the most losses dropped in a season by an Awalt J.V. team was two, with several perfect seasons being recorded. Entertainment wise, '71 was a good year with The Tower of Power opening a show for Boz Skaggs in a concert held in the gym.

Barry Weitzenberg in '68

Soccer C[illegible]970

It's possible that 1972 was just a year that should be erased from the record. In '72, the Daily Demand schedule went into effect. With daily Demand, each student "made" his own schedule every morning according to a computer read-out showing which classes were available. Due to some flaws in the system, Awalt gained a notorious reputation as being a bad school and it took the new administration of Dr. Lorch in 1977 to make that reputation decline. In 1974, Awalt held its first Homecoming parade through downtown Los Altos, and it was this same year that Varsity Football was first in the SCVAL. New clubs included the Auto club, the Wargames club, and the Bicycle Racing club. History will remember 1975 as the only year Awalt football won the CCS title. Falling back on the success and experience of the '74 team, Awalt produced powerhouse results, and came out number 1 out of 130 schools. Girls swimming and tennis were introduced to meet the growing interest in girls athletics, and both teams saw huge turnouts. On the streets, the infamous motorcycle cops with radar made their first appearance, annoying students by hiding behind trees and cars.

CCS Football Champs of '75

In 1976, Awalt took CCS in golf, and in 1977, it was Water Polo's turn again. Girls Field Hockey had it's last year in '77, but '77 saw the formation of girls soccer. In probably the most successful Senior prank ever, over 1,000 students slept in late because of offical looking notices delivered home, stating that classes would not begin until 11:30 due to a teacher in-service day.

The Awalt aquarium got its money's worth in '78 with swimming winning the SCVAL Championship and Water Polo keeping it's CCS crown. In 1979 girls Volleyball won league, and in the following year boys Varsity Soccer finially took their place at the top as SCVAL Champs after 9 years of trying hard. Basketball lost not only a coach but a tradition in 1980 when Charlie Cooke retired after 18 years of coaching at Awalt. Nineteen eighty-one will be a memorable year in the history of Awalt. School spirit has never been higher, and although transition committees have worked to make our school the new Mtn. View High, there will be one important destinction: Awalt will live on in the hearts and minds of those who have gone here.

Students at Awalt 'sleep in,' thanks to senior class prank

By EMMETT EGGLESTON

The Class of 1977 at Awalt High School in Mountain View slept in this morning, compliments of a successful senior prank.

The classes of 1978, 1979, and 1980 slept in also.

The school still was not functioning normally at 10 a.m. and sheepish school officials nervously waited to see if things were going to improve.

"When I got here this morning and didn't see any bicycles there I began to get suspicious," Vice Principal Robert Gonzalves said.

Outside on the school grounds students milled around in small groups. One group had a copy of the letter that set up the prank.

Dr. June Thompson, the dean of student activities, said office help had to take turns at the board. Most callers thought the prank was funny, but a few didn't, a receptionist said.

Meanwhile, administrators stood around hoping that things would get better by 11 a.m.

"The situation now is there are still very few (students) here and by 11 we anticipate most of them will be here," Gonzalves said wishfully.

The letter was hand-delivered to Awalt's 1,300 students during the weekend. It was "signed" by School Principal E. Allan Baker and had a revised bus schedule attached.

The letter was typewritten on official school stationery. Dated last Wednesday, it said: "Dear parents: Because of an inservice learning workshop, we will be on a shortened schedule on Monday, March 14, 1977. Classes will begin at 11 a.m. and will continue the usual 3 p.m. Buses also make special runs later in the

Trisha -
I'm really going to miss you! You are so beautiful and such a fantastic dancer! I wish you much luck at Chico, but I know I'll see you over the summer! Call me (948-6911) if you want to go to the city (Kristen or someone will probably call you first and tell you when we're going) Anyway, have a fantastic summer and I'll see you soon!

Paul Horne

P.S. Congratulations on your graduation! Yea!

Trish,
I'm glad we got to work together in jazz, through I didn't talk to you as much as I would have liked. Remember when you were so caught up in your solo and forgot to come on? It's mistakes like this that makes it more memorable. I hope you'll find a place to choreograph because your dances are neat. I hope & see you again sometime & good luck with whatever you do!
Love, Donna

Trisha:
I'm so glad
I can call you my buddy!
Off - what a privilege - how honored can I be. I think being Vons' por - por had to have been the best part of highschool - the glad I shared those joys and - thrilling times w/ you! Remember our crazy adventure to Cal Poly + Santa Barbara - Off what confusion but fun! truly think you should give coda a second Letters - take that stab and be to yourself! Wait no then - to what oh what dance - answer their a coda cousin - you
longer - so it know!
to wilde! Closed you'll enjoy Chico you down - cause you've got a terrific Store for you! I hope we'll be able to visit each other el most definetly won't stay in touch! But still keep all the fun, spastic time we spent together -awsome
P.S. I'll miss you!
Friends forever!

Trish,

It's been a great year huh? We had such a great time in Jazz! I'll never forget it! Thank-you so much for at least "trying" to save my life when I left my feather at home. I'll never forget the fun times we had in Jazz. Oh, and cruzing in your car. Oh, and also thanx for driving the flake and me all over the place. You're a wonderful friend!

Love always Cara

Trish,

I enjoyed staring at you when you crossed the guard. Good luck in life. Hope you succeed in whatever you do. Good luck in college.

Love Always,

Jeff Delistra

Trish,

I've known you for a long time now, and you've finally become a woman. Next year we'll all start calling you "grandma!" Over the summer stay cool and I will come over, and have some radical times! We could even call the dog house and get more wolf-ups done, or maybe we could go [illegible] and steal a sign with your character calling me a bitch! I think you need to teach me how to dance cause you're really good dancer! It will give you an hour or so (at most/minimum) thanks for being such a fun person!

Love always,

Jeffery Ell

Trish,

Well the years have flown by. It's been a great time. I've known you since we were in the 4th grade and we've been friends ever since. Remember when we used to walk to school and we'd always meet at the corner of Landes and Jamaica? Have fun where ever you go in life and who ever you end up with.

Love,

Jeff

Trish—

I think back to when we were in Kindergarten. We went from best best friends to worst of enimies. Then we went through the great days of bus 14 and Mrs Lyngar!! Remember (okay! did I even graduate from Kindergarten!) remember Her!! We went from Kissing her to calling ~~her~~ her the worst names in the book. Through all our years of growing up we've had A LOT of laughs! Now as we split up and go our seperate ways in College, I wish you all the best in every phase of life. Good Luck at Chico, and we better keep in touch at least when we come home on holidays. We have absolutely NO excuse not to since we live right around the corner from each other. Have a totally great Summer!

Lots of love, Leslie

Trish—

You're such a senior (where's Trish? Oh she only has 2 a class) When I saw you I remembered another friend I'd miss. (Happy Birthday at Bion m.) We had fun in school. Jeez dance was really great, you guys couldn't have done it without us. I mean you guys were hot- without all our whistles and comments it wouldn't be worthwhile for anyone. You are one of the nicest people I know. Good Luck [illegible] Bye Lori (Lorette

~Trish~

9'm so glad 9 met you in jonja this year, because you're super sweet!! 9t was fun being in your dorm, you've got a terrific imagination and a lot of talents which could take you very far in the dance world. Have an outstanding summa, and take care.

Good luck at College and in your future years,

Hope to see you over the summer,

Love always,

Trish-

I'm really glad that I have got to know you this year. From what I have picked up you are a very nice person. I hope you go far in whatever you do. Good luck in life.

Love Always

Trish Beetle
